

REU Engineered Bioactive Interfaces & Devices

Summer Research Experience for Undergraduates

Engineered Bioactive Interfaces and Devices

Sponsored by the National Science Foundation

A multidisciplinary undergraduate summer REU program in Chemical Engineering, Biomedical Engineering, Materials Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Anatomy & Neurobiology, Chemistry and Pharmaceutical Sciences focusing on cell/protein interactions with materials and incorporation of these systems into devices.

Program Dates: Tuesday, May 26 – Friday July 31, 2015
Stipend: $5,000, housing & up to $300 in relocation expenses as well as up to $800 to present at a conference.
Application Deadline: February 13, 2015
Applicants must be U.S. Citizens or Permanent Residents

More info & application: http://NSFREU.engr.uky.edu

