

An impressionist painting of a pond with lily pads and water lilies. The scene is filled with vibrant colors like blues, greens, yellows, and purples, with visible brushstrokes and a shimmering, dappled light effect on the water's surface. The composition is dense and textured, capturing a moment of natural beauty with a focus on light and color rather than sharp lines.

The Lafayette College Concert Band

Kirk O'Riordan, conductor
Sam Freiheiter, assistant conductor

Saturday May 9, 2015 8:00 pm
Williams Center for the Arts

Free tickets available at the
Williams Center Box Office