

Susan L. Fox '88

2007 Lafayette Leadership Institute Keynote Speaker

Vice President, Government
Relations, The Walt Disney Company

Susan Fox serves as Vice President for Government Relations at The Walt Disney Company. In her position as Vice President, Ms. Fox represents all of Disney's operating divisions before the federal government, with a particular focus on issues that affect Disney's media interests, including ABC, ESPN, the ABC Cable Networks, the ABC Owned Television Stations, and ABC Radio.

Prior to her present position, Ms. Fox served as Senior Legal Advisor to former FCC Chairman William Kennard and as Deputy Chief, Mass Media Bureau at the Federal Communications Commission. In these capacities, she handled all media policy issues before the FCC. She also served as Special Counsel in the FCC's General Counsel Office, where she advised the General Counsel on constitutional issues and litigated cases on behalf of the FCC.

Prior to the FCC, Ms. Fox was an associate with the law firm of Hogan & Hartson. She also served as law clerk to the Honorable H. Robert Mayer, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Ms. Fox graduated from Lafayette in 1988 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in engineering and magna cum laude distinction. She went on to earn her law degree from the University Of Virginia School Of Law where she was Editor-in-Chief, Journal of Law & Politics, and winner of the Stephen Pierre Traynor Award.

Susan Fox is married to Jeffrey Markowitz. They live with their three children, Sam, Jack, and Will, in Arlington, Virginia.
