
Lead

Block III Workshops 2:10-3:00 PM

Alumni Roundtable Discussions

Meet with members of the alumni panel for small group discussions. This is your chance to ask them questions and speak with them on a more personal level.

Well Done! The Correct Ingredients for Your Meat...ing

This interactive session is designed to prepare you for potential roadblocks that you may face when attempting to lead your peers. You will learn how to run effective meetings and address conflicts that may arise within your organizations. Activities may include, but are not limited to, role playing, group brainstorming, and snow ball fights (when appropriate).

Clarence Scott, Assist. Dir., Residence Life
Darlene Cerullo '11

Event Planning 101

Learn how to organize and execute an event from Lafayette's main event planners, The Lafayette Activities Forum! You will find out about all the different resources to utilize on campus, who to collaborate with, and the essential components of a successful event. In this interactive session, you will be able to take the lead and plan the event you always wished would happen on campus!

Bob Dustin, Assist. Dir., Student Life Programs
Executive Board, Lafayette Activities Forum

Projecting Leadership Through Effective Public Speaking

In this session you will learn tips and tricks to facilitate more confident public speaking and more effective non-verbal communication through the use of acting and theater techniques.

Mary Jo Lodge, Assist. Professor, English & Theater

Leader Recognition Reception

3:00-3:30 PM

Bergethon Room, Marquis Hall

On-line pre-registration is required by this Friday, January 28th by following the link at:

<http://sites.lafayette.edu/lleconference/>

Space is limited to the first 200 registrants and attendance and session selection will be first come, first served.

The 2011 Lafayette Leadership Institute is a program of the Office of Student Life Programs made possible by the: Class of '68 Leadership Fund.
For more information, contact the Office of Student Life Programs at (610) 330-5337

Lafayette Leadership Education Committee:

Pam Brewer

LLE Chair, Associate Dean of Students

Darlene Cerullo '11

Alan Childs

Professor, Psychology

Director, Center for the Integration of Teaching

Bob Dustin

Assistant Director, Student Life Programs

Caitlin Flood '12

Student Leadership Intern '11-'12

James Gold

Associate Director, Estate Planned Giving

Matthew Grandon '12

Rachel Hollander '11

Lauren Howland '11

Student Leadership Intern '10-'11

Ashley Juavinett '11

Jared Katz '12

Nan Li '12

Rachel Moeller '88

Associate Director, Career Services

Andrew Moore '12

Clarence Scott

Assistant Director, Residence Life

Adam Stauffer

Associate Director, Major Gifts

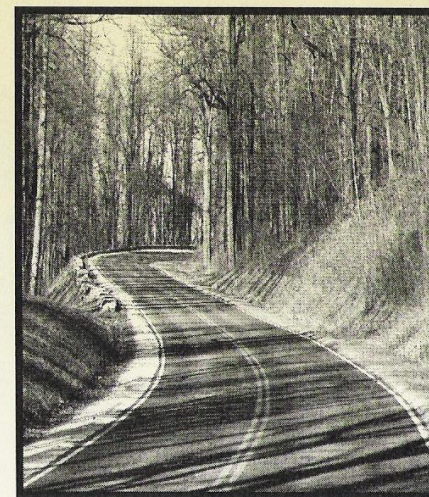

Bianca Vassare '12

Pave the Way

Explore.

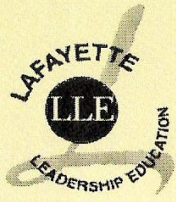

Initiate.

Lead.

Lafayette Leadership Institute
Emerging Student Leaders
February 5, 2011

Pave the way

Registration & Breakfast
9:30 – 10:00 AM

Marquis Hall Lobby & Bergethon Room

Keynote Address 10:00 - 10:40 AM

Forty Years of Co-education at Lafayette: A Pioneer's Story of Leadership

Maureen Graham Raquet '76, former police officer, juvenile probation officer, and current Executive Director of the Montgomery County Juvenile Detention Center, will talk about how her career in male dominated fields has been influenced by her experiences as a member of one of the first co-ed classes at Lafayette. She will discuss those early years on the Lafayette campus, how she paved her own path, and how her experiences contributed to her leadership story.

Explore

Block I Workshops 10:50-11:40 AM

Keynote Follow-Up

We invite you to join this small group keynote follow-up discussion with Maureen Graham Raquet '76.

Explore Your Leadership Style with the Leadership Compass

How do you lead? In this workshop, we will explore four types of leadership styles (North, South, East, and West) and will discuss the strengths and weaknesses of each kind of leader. Through this interactive workshop, you will discover your own leadership style and brainstorm methods of working with others whose styles differ from your own.

*Dr. Bonnie Winfield, Director, Landis Center
Brent Hoagland '12*

February 5, 2011

Mapping Gender, Race, and Leadership: Kirby Hall of Civil Rights

The complex issues of gender, race, and leadership as reflected in the history of the Kirby Hall of Civil Rights and its infamous dedicatory plaque will be examined in this workshop. Questions of ownership, inclusiveness, and the right to learn and lead at Lafayette will be explored.

*Michelle Geoffrion-Vinci, Associate Professor,
Foreign Languages & Literatures*

Their Path: Words of Wisdom from Senior Leaders

As a first-year or sophomore student, the prospect of holding leadership positions in college and applying these experiences to the real world can be daunting. With their own personal stories and candid answers to your leadership questions, this panel of current Lafayette seniors who share their leadership paths at Lafayette.

*Ashley Juavinett '11, Steve Gadomski '11,
Cara Lyons '11, Alyssa Smith '11, Briana Strachan '11*

Initiate

Block II Workshops 11:50-12:40 PM

The Ground Work: Find, Start, and Manage an Organization

Have you ever wondered about the inner workings of a student organization? This workshop will provide the tools necessary to find organizations that match your interests, initiate new clubs which can benefit campus, or raise the standard of your organization. Additionally, you will learn how to enhance your own leadership skills through involvement.

Matthew Grandon '12, Student Government President

Navigating Networking Nerves

Effective leaders know they cannot reach their destinations alone. Take the initiative to expand your network of "contacts" to include faculty and alumni. This workshop will focus on building your strong interpersonal communication skills to solicit information and sell yourself. You will also practice effective techniques and strategies to be more successful.

Rachel Moeller '88, Associate Director, Career Services

Lafayette Leadership Institute

Think Local. Act Global.

This panel discussion will be led by student leaders from the Economic Empowerment & Global Learning Project and Bogotá Summer Cooperative Education Program. Based on their work experiences both home and abroad, panelists will discuss interdisciplinary initiatives in unfamiliar settings, the application of a liberal arts education to solving real-life problems, and effective ways to enhance global citizenship utilizing resources at Lafayette.
*Alec Bernstein '11, Ting Chiu '11, Richie Durham '11,
Lindsey Getches '11, Ben Swartout '11*

The Science of Success: A Neurobiomechanical Tour of Academic Performance

Do you want to become a more effective learner? In this session, efficient strategies will be introduced to help increase your motivation, learning, and concentration. You will learn how to utilize your brain's basic functions to maximize time spent studying and use specific strategies grounded in the neuroscience of performance.

Tim Silvestri Ph.D., Assist. Dir., Counseling Services

Lunch & Alumni Panel Presentation
12:40 – 2:00 PM

Bergethon Room, Marquis Hall

After our buffet lunch, a panel of distinguished alumni will discuss their journey from Lafayette student leader to successful graduate student or professional.

Moderator: James Hughes '05, Executive Director, Maroon Club; Panelists: Kelly Barrows '06, Graduate Student, Media Sales, Entrepreneur; Dr. Edward Bedrossian Jr. '73, Director of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, Temple University Hospital and Attending Surgeon, Wills Eye Institute; Liza Roos Prior Lucy '74, Quiltmaker, Book Author, E-tailer; The Honorable Thomas Sumners Jr. '80, Judge, Superior Court, Civil Division, Mercer County; Robin Wiessmann '75, Investment Banker and former Pennsylvania Treasurer