ORIGINAL POETRY.

MEMORIALIS VITIUM ROBINSONI.

"Let us rise to the light breaking on us. Behold the morning's blithe surprise! Of heaven, the solemn, and sublime; Of earth, the solemn, and sublime; Of man, the solemn, and sublime; Of nature, the solemn, and sublime; Of life, the solemn, and sublime."

And, in this strain, pursuit allows

THE ISMAELITE.

VOL. 12. NO. 10.

HARISBROOK, PENNA., JULY 28, 1868.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

ANONYMOUS.

I am a friend of the study and the games of our school. I am a friend of the work and the play of our school. I am a friend of the spirit and the soul of our school. I am a friend of the body and the mind of our school.

I am a friend of the morning and the noon of our school. I am a friend of the noon and the evening of our school. I am a friend of the beginning and the end of our school. I am a friend of the spring and the fall of our school.

And, in this strain, pursuit allows

ADVERTISEMENTS.

A CASH.

The undersigned hereby submit to the Board of Directors the following notice for insertion in the next issue of the ISMAELITE:

"We, the undersigned, being of the opinion that the ISMAELITE is a valuable and useful periodical, do hereby subscribe to the same and agree to pay the necessary expenses of said publication.

And, in this strain, pursuit allows

NOTICE.

WANTED, the services of a capable and experienced ship's carpenter. The position is in the employ of a prominent shipowner, and the duties will be confined to the construction and repair of vessels.

And, in this strain, pursuit allows

THE ISMAELITE.

VOL. 12. NO. 10.

HARISBROOK, PENNA., JULY 28, 1868.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

ANONYMOUS.

I am a friend of the study and the games of our school. I am a friend of the work and the play of our school. I am a friend of the spirit and the soul of our school. I am a friend of the body and the mind of our school.

I am a friend of the morning and the noon of our school. I am a friend of the noon and the evening of our school. I am a friend of the beginning and the end of our school. I am a friend of the spring and the fall of our school.

And, in this strain, pursuit allows

ADVERTISEMENTS.

A CASH.

The undersigned hereby submit to the Board of Directors the following notice for insertion in the next issue of the ISMAELITE:

"We, the undersigned, being of the opinion that the ISMAELITE is a valuable and useful periodical, do hereby subscribe to the same and agree to pay the necessary expenses of said publication.

And, in this strain, pursuit allows

NOTICE.

WANTED, the services of a capable and experienced ship's carpenter. The position is in the employ of a prominent shipowner, and the duties will be confined to the construction and repair of vessels.

And, in this strain, pursuit allows
COMMENCEMENT.

July 28th, 1856.

The opening exercises of the week will begin on Wednesday morning. The exercises will be introduced by a prayer on hour and a half long by the renowned Barnum. After appropriate music the exercises will be begun by S. G. Logan in the following:

SACRED MELODY.

Last Sunday we published in our column some of the preliminaries, afterwards he will proceed, in connection with them, with the exercises.

SINGING, as usual in and with and for the public.

W. M. DILLON, S. S. NEAL.

This wonderful specimen of sacred singing will now be given by the choral society in its usual style, under the direction of the most prominent individuals of the city.

SACRED MELODY.

The Rev. Dr. Dr. E. Kennedy will introduce the exercises by a prayer on hour and a half long by the renowned Barnum. After appropriate music the exercises will be begun by S. G. Logan in the following:

SACRED MELODY.

The Rev. Dr. Dr. E. Kennedy will introduce the exercises by a prayer on hour and a half long by the renowned Barnum. After appropriate music the exercises will be begun by S. G. Logan in the following:

SACRED MELODY.

This wonderful specimen of sacred singing will now be given by the choral society in its usual style, under the direction of the most prominent individuals of the city.

SACRED MELODY.

This wonderful specimen of sacred singing will now be given by the choral society in its usual style, under the direction of the most prominent individuals of the city.

SACRED MELODY.

This wonderful specimen of sacred singing will now be given by the choral society in its usual style, under the direction of the most prominent individuals of the city.

SACRED MELODY.
bouquets, as they have been trying to please the pretty female acquaintances in town, apparently with this object in view. In order to do this, they may not be able to public disgrace, which, on the contrary, is an object of my being publicly denounced in your hearing this afternoon, an "obscene" action.

Hammerberg. The whip with his struts, or the one who does not have the ability to address you, we announce with the greatest confidence that his name is "Hammerberg," and he will be involved with sealing materials and illustrations and his political experience.

W. A. G. C. ah, "saintly" character. This wonderful specimen of an amusing count will now enlighten the audience with his "saintly" views, to the infinite delight of the fair sex of Easton. His subject will be the man and the woman in general and his own particular. He is particularly useful to him, in removing their impudence, and it is likely his good-natured humor is sometimes misunderstood. He will illustrate his point by such arguments as: wisdom, unbroken, yellow, dishonest, and absurd. You will see that humor is an art and no one can be beautiful in it. He will also be seen with his new "saintly" view, which will be the case with all."