Your Committee on the Fowler Prize Essays for the present year hereby make report:
That they have perused with care the Essays laid before them entitled "Corinth", "Ezra", "Irving" and "Florence" respectively on the language of the English Bible. Your Committee have not been able to discover sufficient merit in any one to entitle it to sole preference. After deliberation they have decided on a division of the prize between "Irving" and "Florence", in consideration of the creditable examination sustained in Chapel by the authors.

The Prize is accordingly awarded to Messrs R. H. Smith and J. M. Pfoote, the authors of the Essays
"Irving" and "Florence"
