

KARL STIRNER ARTS TRAIL

The Karl Stirner Arts Trail (KSAT) is an approximately 2.4-mile hiking and biking trail that runs along the Bushkill Creek from the Delaware River to North 13th Street in Easton, PA. The KSAT connects Easton's Scott and Riverside Parks, Centre Square, and Lafayette College's Williams Arts Campus, with Silk: A Creative Community, the mixed use "creativity complex" at the former Simon Silk Mill. Along the way, the KSAT showcases sculpture and other works by some of the finest international, national, and local artists.

You can support the KSAT with your time and effort by becoming a "Friend of the KSAT" or by making a financial contribution to support the acquisition, installation and maintenance of public art work along the trail. For more information, visit us on facebook at:

The KSAT is a partnership of the city of Easton, the Redevelopment Authority of Easton, Lafayette College, Silk: A Creative Community, and developer VM Development Group.

The initiative is made possible through financial contributions by these partners, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Northampton County, and private donors and contributors.
