Questions for POSP 2019 Leadership Committee Application

Questions if you have never held a Leadership Committee role on POSP

1) Civic Engagement is defined as the ways in which people work with their communities and larger social groupings to participate in the cultural and political lifeblood of [the world] (Dolgan and Baker, 2011). How does POSP cultivate civic engagement among first year students?
2) In what ways does POSP impact our local communities?
3) Please describe skills and qualities that characterize effective leadership.
   a. Of the skills you named, which do you possess?
   b. Describe a time when you demonstrated these skills.
   c. What skills do you need to develop further?
4) Participation on the POSP Leadership Committee requires a significant commitment throughout the spring semester. What are your strategies for time management and meeting deadlines?

Questions if you have been on the Leadership Committee for POSP

1) What have you learned about yourself as a product of having been part of the Leadership Committee? Please provide an example on how you have implemented these skills in other leadership positions in your life.
2) "Controversy with civility" is defined as "Recognizing and discussing differences in opinions and perspectives within a group while maintaining respect for those having other views" (Higher Education Research Institute, 1996). Describe a time when you worked as a team and were confronted with differences in opinion. How did this effect the team? What actions did you take, if any?
3) What does diversity mean to you? How can you as an individual contribute in creating inclusive spaces?
4) POSP has been a significant part in welcoming selected first-year students throughout the years. Each year, the Leadership Committee looks for ways to make the experience even better, as there is always room for improvement. Please describe two things that you would like to change or improve in POSP, and how you would go about doing so.